LETTER TO COMMISSION

TO: Mayor Philip Levine and Members of the City Commission

FROM: Jimmy L. Morales, City Manager

DATE: November 3, 2016

SUBJECT: Community Meeting To Discuss Temporary Relocation Strategies for Maurice Gibb Memorial Park Playground

On Monday, November 14, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. the Parks and Recreation Department will be hosting a community meeting at the Miami Beach Golf Club to discuss temporary relocation strategies for the Maurice Gibb Memorial Park Playground.

Maurice Gibb Memorial Park is facing a temporary closure during an upcoming soil remediation project and renovation of the park. The City of Miami Beach is currently exploring several options in order to continue serving the playground users including residents from Belle Isle, Sunset Harbor, Sunset Islands, West Avenue and the Venetian Islands. The intention of the community meeting is to discuss proposed strategies which include a temporary playground near the current park and a permanent/temporary playground at Belle Isle Park.

Should you have additional questions, please contact John Rebar at (305) 673-7730.
